The International Network for Quality Assurance Agencies in Higher Education (INQAAHE) is a highly relevant international entity in ensuring the quality of higher education, bringing together accreditation agencies, regulatory bodies, and academic institutions from various countries. Its work focuses on promoting standards of excellence, exchanging best practices, and strengthening technical evaluation benchmarks, contributing to credibility, transparency, and institutional trust in the global educational landscape. It should be noted that INQAAHE is officially listed in the International Directory of the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (EUA), through the CHEA International Quality Group, a fact that reinforces its legitimacy and broad international recognition. This inclusion confirms its technical authority as a consolidated reference in evaluation, accreditation, and institutional recognition processes, attributing significant documentary weight and credibility to dossiers and formal instruments that mention it.
